A GLANCE AT THE SEASON.

Daly's Peerless Cempany-Echose From the Metropolis-Latest From the Amnsement World.

Two nights are all Daly has set apart for his Salt Lake season this year.

Ferhaps we should be content with this, for with the exception of Salt Lake, no town or city between San Francisco and New York is touched by Lake, no tewn or city between San Francisco and New York is touched by him in his jump back across the continent.

That he should have selected Salt Lake is all the more wonderful when we recall that his last visit here, three of four years ago, was not such a one as to cause him to burn to repeat it.

The engagement was a brief one; it was held in the Opera House and the thermonester was jumping from 90 to 100. And though Ada Rehan sent the youth of the town mad, and the names of Lewis, Drew and Mrs. Gilbert were on everyone's lips, the box office did not show that it had held its end up, and lowers of the drama mournfully sonjectured that Salt Lake would be one Whatever the reason that brings this inimitable company of players to us again, let us be thankful for it. What all the old famous and the work of the strongest successes on which New York, where she ourse pleasure.

The characters see well varied, the situations original and remarkably amusing, the lines bright and witty and the actions quick and full of surprises. There are some overdrafts in probability, but they can be foreign.

be forgiven.

Mr. Daly is either the author, translator or adaptor of all the plays which his company produce. It is not generally known that he wrote Plque, Diworce and Under the Gaslight. The Taming of the Shrewhe made a special study, and in rearranging for the modern stage, all Shakespeare's risques having been carefully obliterated.

Tuesday and Wednesday of next week are the dates of this engagement.

on" opens in the metropolis te-morrow night.

Even at this distance the echo of the noise of preparation has been heard, and many there are who will sigh with vain longing to be present among the first nighters, the swells, the critics, the professionals, and the old timers that assemble to make a New York theatre blaze on the opening evening of its season.

All the theatres, of course, will not be ready with their productions; but after to-morrow night, every Monday night will see them wheel into the line, and before many weeks the great world of amusement in New York will be re volving upon its axis once more.

Lagardere, with Maurice Barrymore in the title role, opens out in great spectacular form at Niblo's under the management of Imre Kiralfy.

HARRIGAN FOLLOWS Daly at the Salt Lake Theatre.

Daly's Theatr will be occupied by his own peerless company.

ERMINIE WILL be taken from the Cas-ino boards in September, and will be re-placed by the marquis. Gilbert and Sull'van's new opera will see the light there in October.

Sailtvan's new opera will see the light there in October.

The name of American Opera is beard no more except in the throats of court criers. That great temple of music, the Metropolitan, will be given over to German opera.

The one Wallack's Theatre will be the home of another strong stock company, though Wallack will be known in the control more. Napoleon Bouaparte Abbey and his partners will conduct the future destucies of the house, and such people as Beilini, Tearle and Fiorence Girard are among the principals.

On Saturday evening, then having completed a successful seven weeks' engagement at the Casino as Javotte in Erminic, Fanny Rice will retire from the cast in order to enjoy a few week's vacation at her home in Franktin Falls, N. H., before beginning her second season with the Carleton Opera Company.—Mirror.

Painless Regulation.

It is no longer a question of doubt-although the contrary was once believed—that medicines which produce violent effects are unsuited to other than desperate emergencies. In other words, that super-potent remedies are calculated to weaken and injure the system rather than reform its irregularities. Among medicines of debilitating effect are cathartics and cholagogues which copiously and abruptly evacuate the bowels—Because it does not do this, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is preferable to the drenching class of purgatives. Painless in its effects, it is sufficiently active to remedy constipation. It relieves by invigorating the intestines, and enables, not forces, these by nature. Promoting the secretion of bile in normal quantities by its healthfully stimulating effect upon the liver, it is eminently conductive to digestion, and contributes in no small degree to keep the bowels regular.

A Strong Testimonial A Strong Testimonial

Editor Enquirer:—I have been north as far as Centreville and Bountiful by invitation from Mr. Samuel Smith, for the purpose of visiting several orchards introduced in that section of country during the last four years by the Geneva Nursery, and I was most agreeably surprised to find the various kinds of fruit trees much finer even than Mr. ably surprised to find the various kinds of fruit trees much finer even than Mr. Smith had represented them to be. The fruit that I saw, such as pears, cherries, grapes, etc., and the satisfaction heard expressed by parties who have bought and are still buying from the Geneva Nursery, satisfies me that the proprietors are square-dealing and reliable business gentlemen, and that they are introducing a class of fruit into this Territory that if properly cultivated, will bring good profit to the producer.
